smaller male, very compact in the body, nice head and expression, good neck, needs more substance of the body, the croupe is a little bit short, angulation ok, but the hock is a bit too high, tail carriage a little high. Lovely coat, the movement parallel but a little bit short in the steps, nice temperament very nice type and size, rather elegant type and head, the lower jaw could be a little bit stronger, good neck and topline, good depth of the body but like slightly more sprung of rib, a little bit long in loin, bone ok, well angulated, slightly high in the hock, good coat quality but presented a little bit short ok, she moves well with a short step calm temperament
