i like the shape of this bitch, kind head and expression and presents a balanced topline, she would benefit of trimming over the shoulders, she looks a little short in neck , too much weight, she didn ´t want to move today strong bitch, who is just starting to lose her coat, she has a good reach of neck and well layback of shoulders, but i would like a little more length of upperarm, a little long in loin, still hold a fabulous topline standing and on the move, good strong hindquarters and neat hocks, kind head, would like darker eyes quality bitch, who is well constructed throughout a little long cast, but still hold a fabulous topline, she has enough bone, but i would like more for her size, i would prefer less trimming under neath as it lightly spoils her outline, moves well
